

Miaoli Detention Center, Agency of Corrections, Ministry of Justice
 2020 "Chongyang Festival Family Day for Senior Inmate" Activity

Health care lectures for the elderly by nurses

Answer questions about welfare for the elderly

A bowl of pork knuckle noodles for each person

Play videos of elderly issues

Father and daughter photo

Counselling staff answer questions

With family together

Three generations together

Time : October 23, 2020

Location : Our teaching hall

The number of participants : 17 inmates , 12 family member

Organizer : Counseling department

Activity description :

The Chongyang Festival is approaching. We organizes family day activities for the elderly inmates over 65 years old, inviting family members to care about the inmates and let the elderly inmates feel the support of family.

Mr. Yang of the Miaoli Rehabilitation Protection Association visited the institute to promote the introduction of welfare resources for the elderly, nurse Chen explained the health care lectures for the elderly, and broadcasted the Ministry of Health and Welfare's promotional videos on elderly care and care. A bowl of pork knuckle noodles was given to each elderly inmate. As a meaning of blessing his health and longevity. Three generations of family members of a inmate surnamed Xie came to the scene to reunite. The family expressed their gratitude to the host for the warm action carefully arranged.

Director Zhang of our firm said that with the care of family members, elderly inmates will not feel abandoned, and hope that their family members can continue to support them with love and care in the future, so as to achieve the goal of returning to society and avoiding recurrence.