Activity description :

At present, the domestic new crown virus epidemic is severe. In order to improve the knowledge of the occupants about the epidemic and cooperate with the implementation of epidemic prevention measures, this event is specially held. In order to expand the effect of the event, all supervisors are requested to strengthen the encouragement of inmates to participate. In the end, a total of 203 entries were made and more than a quarter of the inmates participated.

Due to the large number of works, a preliminary review will be held by the host representative, and 20% of the works will be selected to participate in the review. The secretary and the head of the department will serve as reviewers for the review. The first to fifth, sixth to 10th, and 11th are selected respectively. Up to 20 people will receive corresponding rewards.

Director Zhang Longquan of our institute said that correction agencies must strictly prevent virus intrusion. It is not enough to rely on the efforts of staff. All staff and recipients must work together to implement various epidemic prevention measures and try their best to block the path of virus infection in order to protect the institution and shelter. Human safety, through the difficult epidemic together.
